LONG CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION TO THE THIRD EDITION

Recent global changes

- The shift in economic and political power
- Global warming and climate change
- Increasing inequality both within and between societies
- The trend towards individualization
- The worldwide recession
- Social protest and the audacity of hope
- The Arab Spring

Sociology's contribution to understanding global issues

The organization of this book

- Interpretations
- Divisions and inequalities
- Experiences
- Dynamics and challenges

PART ONE: INTERPRETATIONS

1 THE MAKING OF GLOBAL SOCIOLOGY

Key starting points in sociology

- Sociology as science
- Sociology as the comparative study of social life and society
- Sociology as imaginative understanding
- Sociology and the search for knowledge
- Sociology as critique and its public responsibility

Some milestones in the history of sociology

- The global turn in sociological thinking
  - Trying to break away from national orientations
  - Post-1945: widening windows on a more complex world

Theories of uneven development

- The new international division of labour
An age of uncertainties but also opportunities
Uncertainty as a space to shape the future

Review

2 THINKING GLOBALLY

Globalization: key concepts
- Deteriorialization: changing concepts of time and space
- Increased cultural interaction: flows and scapes
- Glocalization processes
- The power of worldwide networking
- Increasing global mobilities and complexities

Key agents of globalization: multiple transnational actors
- Transnational corporations (TNCs)
- International governmental organizations (IGOs)
- International non-governmental organizations (INGOs)
- Global social movements (GSMs)
- Diasporas and stateless people
- Other transnational actors

The impact of globalization
- All roads lead to increasing interconnectivities
- The commonality of problems

Globality: a new phenomenon
- Thinking about ourselves collectively
- Growth of multicultural and transnational awareness
- Reflexive social actors and modernity
- The broadening of identities: towards cosmopolitanism

Review

3 MODERNITY AND THE EVOLUTION OF WORLD SOCIETY

Premodern forms of globalization

Capitalist modernity: European foundations
- The nation-state system
- European Enlightenment thought
- Marx’s analysis of capitalism
The growth of rationality
The onset of European colonialism

From 1945 to the 1980s: the era of US dominance
The Bretton Woods financial system
Third World decolonization
The onset of the cold war
A ‘golden age’ and Keynesian economic policies

Key changes since 1989
The collapse of the USSR: an era of worldwide capitalism
US economic and financial policies: shoring up hegemony
A bi- or multi-polar world

Review

4 WORK, PRODUCTION AND FINANCE
The Fordist regime of accumulation
The rise of mass production and consumption
The management of Fordist industry

The crisis of Fordism and the decline of the ‘golden age’
Worker dissatisfaction and more discerning postmodern consumers
The turn to neo-liberal economics
Japanization: a more competitive world economy and flexible labour
‘Flexible’ labour and Western deindustrialization

Parallel transformations
The shift to service jobs and the symbolic or knowledge economy
The revolution in ICTs
The dramatic movement of women into the workforce

Growing world competition and the rise of the BRIC countries
Chinese manufactured exports
India’s world-class service economy

The financialization of the global economy since the 1990s
The trajectory of financialization: risk

Endgame 2007–10: the bursting financial bubble and its impact

Review
POLITICAL SOCIOLOGY: CHANGING NATION-STATES

Sociology, nation-states and the international system
Classical sociology and social change
Universalism and nationalism

Citizenship: entitlements and obligations

Sociology, nation-states and interstate relations
Putting ‘society’ back into national and global politics
The feminist reassessment

Bush and Obama: from imperialism to multilateralism?
The assertion and abuse of hegemonic power, 2001–09
Obama’s USA: a return to multilateralism?

Does globalization mean the decline of the nation-state?
Clarifying the terms of the discussion
Economic autonomy

The continuing need for effective nation-states
Intra and inter-state conflicts
Nation-states: variation in global influence
States in transformation: an urgent need for collaboration

Review

PART TWO: DIVISIONS AND INEQUALITIES

GLOBAL INEQUALITIES: THE VICTIMS

Globalization and poverty
Is global poverty in retreat?
Recent re-evaluations
Multidimensional Poverty Index (MPI)

Famine victims: how famine arises
Food insecurity
Natural disasters
Entitlement theory
Policy failings

Workers in the deindustrializing countries
Declining permanent jobs and stark alternatives
Potential reactions: sink estates and right-wing populism

Peasants and landless labourers

The peasantry and the disruption of the rural world

The urban poor: mega-cities and slum dwellers

Review

---

CLASS, INCOME AND WEALTH

Class in the era of nationally based capitalism

- Slavery
- Caste
- Class and national capitalisms
- Marxist and neo-Marxist notions of class
- Weberian views of class
- Class models based on work and occupation
- Cultural practices and class identities, positions and opportunities

Recent evidence of rising global inequality

- Inequality within nations
- Growing global inequality since 1980
- The super-rich and average wage earners: comparisons

The shift from national to global classes

- A world proletariat competing for jobs
- Geopolitical transformations
- Precarious workers
- Predatory capital
- A mobile transnational capitalist class

Review

---

GENDER AND SEXUALITIES

Gender hierarchies, patriarchy and women’s subordination

- First-wave feminism
- Second-wave feminism
- The engendering of femininity and masculinity
- The gender hierarchy and female subordination
- Patriarchal societies and patriarchal relations
From private to public forms of patriarchy

Women and economic globalization
Women’s move into the global workforce

Protecting homeworkers

Women and global care chains

A worldwide feminist movement: confronting patriarchy

The constraints on women’s movements
Growth of the worldwide movement
The UN framework for networking
Second-wave and Southern feminism
Women representing themselves: independent communications

The global gay movement: challenging homophobia

Review

RACE, ETHNICITY AND INTERSECTIONALITY
Race and colonialism
Race and ethnicity: challenging myths
Evaluating biological notions of ‘race’
Sociological notions of race
Ethnicity
Urban nightmares and racial divisions
Young second generation urban migrants: coping through music

 Territory, belonging and music in Sweden: a case study
Intersectionality: gender/race/class interactions

Some underexposed forms of social inequality
Religious affiliation
Disability and ‘mobility rights’
Civic status
Age

Review

CORPORATE POWER AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY
Origins and characteristics of TNCs
Characteristics
Definition

TNCs as globalizing and internationalizing agents
- TNCs as globalizing agents
- International, but not global agents

Assessment

The increased power of financial corporations

TNCs and nation-states: comparative economic weighting

Exporting lifestyles: the case of tobacco

Working for TNCs
- Working in the export-processing zones
- Global supply chains: the role of the supermarkets

Opposing TNC power

Review

11 CRIME, TERRORISM AND VIOLENCE

Crime watch
- Defining and measuring crime and deviance
- Social control in sociological theory

Murder, most foul

Globalization and crime
- Explaining the growth of global crime

Drugs: demand and supply

White-collar crime
- Corporate crime

Understanding terrorism today
- Origins and definitions
- Characteristics and wider implications of non-government terrorism
- Globalization, states and non-government terrorism

Women, violence and health
- States, war and violence against women
- Women, health and domestic violence: comparisons

Review

PART THREE: EXPERIENCES
12 POPULATION AND MIGRATION

The fear of overpopulation
Understanding population growth
The world’s population: cause for concern?
Where do they all go? Urbanization and internal migration
The globalization of migration

The changing character of international migration since the 1980s
Refugees: changing pressures
Undocumented workers
Women migrants

Transnational migration and ‘salad bowl’ host societies
Some reasons for transnationalism
The complex character of transnationalism

Review

13. GLOBALIZATION, FAMILIES AND SOCIAL CHANGE

The sociology of the family
The transformation of intimacy
The meanings of ‘family’

Comparative family studies
United Kingdom
New fatherhood
Japan
Japanese fathers
Comparative family studies and global sociology

Globalization and intimacy
Technology as a facilitator of intimacy

Globalization and new relationships
The commodification of intimacy

Review

14 CONSUMING CULTURE

Consumerism and everyday life
The meaning of consumerism

A critical-pessimistic scenario: consumers as dopes
- Commodity fetishism
- Mass consumption
- Signifying culture
- Depthlessness
- Fantasy becomes reality
- The global consumption of nothing

An optimistic scenario: consumers as creative heroes
- Product differentiation
- Advertising and its limitations
- The social sieve
- Consumption as life enhancing
- Consumer creativity

Towards a homogenous, Americanized global culture?
- The experienced consumer
- Diversity within the homogenizing states
- The survival of local cultures
- Reverse cultural flows

Shaping global culture: the role of the local
- Indigenization
- Reinvention and rediscovery
- Creolization
- Food
- Capoeira
- Pop-rock and rap

Review

15 LIFESTYLE AND LEISURE

The scope of international tourism
- Growth and regional distribution of international tourism
- Underpinning the global economy and globality

Contrasting tourist styles
- Selling national-ethnic cultures and its possible consequences
Exposure to outside influences
The need to reinvent traditions
The loss of authenticity both for locals and visitors

Sport in a global age
- Sport as a mainstream leisure activity
- Sport and national competition
- Crossing borders: sport as a powerful globalizing entity

Leisure, lifestyle, the body and sport
- Global achievement sport and modern body culture
- The transition to modern sports culture in Kenya

Key effects of the commercialized global sport industry

Review

16 MEDIA AND THE DIGITAL AGE
- What are ‘the media’?
- Corporate ownership and the media
- Telecommunications
- The computer and the internet
  - The internet: a positive assessment
  - Some disadvantages of the internet
  - Internet addiction
  - Grooming children for sexual abuse
  - Facebook narcissism
  - The social media and political extremism

The rise of informational society
- Informational society: social consequences
  - Negative effects of TV viewing
  - Consumerism
  - Media domination and identities

Review

17 GLOBAL RELIGION
- Early sociologists and religion; Comte and Marx
- Understanding religious expression: ritual, totem and taboo
Rituals
Totem
Taboo

Religion and capitalism

The secularization thesis

Challenges to the secularization thesis: global religiosity thrives

Religious survival in the West
The worldwide growth of new religious movements
The globalization of religion

The ‘threat’ from Islam

The complexity of Islam
The West's invasion of ‘Muslim lands’
Can the West live with Islam?

Review

18 URBAN LIFE

The colonial city
The industrial city and the Chicago School
An increasingly urban future
The notion of a global city

Some key characteristics of global cities
Inward migration
Changes in the occupational structure
The feminization of employment
Regionalization and the global city
Los Angeles: the fragmented mega-urban region

Review

PART FOUR: DYNAMICS AND CHALLENGES

19 GLOBAL CIVIL SOCIETY AND POLITICAL ACTIVISM

What is global civil society?
The need for global and not just national civil society
Forging global civil society: INGOs and parallel summits
International non-governmental organizations (INGOs)

Parallel summits

Global social movements

Why have some social movements become globalized?

- Changes in consciousness: towards global thinking
- Changes in communications technology

The Global Justice Movement: a case study

Global communications and the social media: the Arab Spring

- The role of the social media
- Other forms of mobilization

Review

20 TOWARDS AN ENVIRONMENTALLY SAFE WORLD

Transboundary environmental problems

The evidence for global warming and climate change

Global warming and energy security

- Oil and energy security
- Oil and global transport
- When will oil peak?
- Future rising oil prices
- The scramble for oil and geo-political tensions
- Twin risks: climate change and energy security

Technological and lifestyle solutions to global warming

- Cleaning up current energy sources: coal
- Nuclear power
- Reducing power/energy needs

Developing renewable energy sources

- Wind power
- Geo-thermal energy
- Wave and tidal power
- Solar energy

Adopt a low carbon economy and a less materialistic lifestyle

- ‘Soft’ environmental adaptation: modernity retained
- Tough environmentalism: nature’s needs gain greater prominence
The changing environmental movement
   North-South differences over tackling greenhouse gas emissions

Review

21 IDENTITIES AND BELONGING

Confronting the local and the global – key influences

The resilient local as a continuing source of belonging
   Ethnicity
   National identity
   The continuing power of place

Case studies

Aggressive expressions of re-localization and belonging
   Large scale ethno-conflicts
   Blaming outsiders for threats to local belonging: micro-reactions

Protecting localism through forging external alliances
   Indigenous peoples – clashing with modernization

Constructing bi-local or multi-local transnational lives
   Diasporas
   Cosmopolitanism and the city

Review

22 CONCLUSION: GLOBAL UNCERTAINTIES AND WAYS FORWARD

Is globalization new and how extensive is it
   Recent measures or globalization in general

Reacting to uncertainty
   Supporters
   Detractors
   Reformers
   Outsiders

Global exclusion and inclusion
   The ‘great transformation’ and social exclusion
   Elements of a counter-movement

Ways forward for global public policy
   Reviving mutuality
Managing difference
Creating greater equality
Promoting democracy
Developing a sustainable environmental model

Review and final remarks