

---

Table 8.3 Not in my name: the largest demonstrations against the Iraq War by city, 15–16 February 2003

Over a single weekend, an estimated six million people took part in demonstrations in 600 or so cities against the American-led war in Iraq. These rallies show how transnational protest can occur with minimal central leadership.

---

Estimated number of protestors

---

Rome	Up to 3,000,000
Barcelona	1,300,000
London	1,000,000
Madrid	600,000
Berlin	500,000
Paris	200,000
Sydney	200,000
Damascus	Up to 200,000
Melbourne	160,000
New York	100,000

---

Source: Figures are estimates reported in the Financial Times, 17 February 2003.